

This fact sheet identifies those in a Parish who are required to obtain Working with Vulnerable People (WWVP) or Working with Children Check (WWCC).

FACT SHEET: WHO NEEDS WWVP/WWCC IN A PARISH?

Who requires Working with Children checking?

- Any person working with children and vulnerable people (paid or unpaid) must undergo the Working with Vulnerable People clearance (ACT) and/or Working with Children Check (NSW).
- In the Archdiocese of Canberra and Goulburn Clergy, Parish Priests and Parish workers must undertake the relevant checking process before they start working with children and/or vulnerable people.
- As outlined in the Vicar General's Ad Clerum of November 2017, it is expected that Priests working in the Archdiocese of Canberra and Goulburn will have both Working with Vulnerable People clearance (ACT) and a Working with Children Check (NSW).

What are child-related roles in our Parishes?

The Archdiocese's Institute for Professional Standards and Safeguarding (IPSS) has identified the following roles in a Parish which are classed as 'child-related' and therefore require Working with Vulnerable People Registration/Working with Children Checks:

- Parish Priest, Assistant Priest, Parish Administrator
- Parish Secretary
- Deacon
- Sisters and Brothers in Apostolic Life
- Youth Minister
- Youth Worker
- Pastoral Association, Family Minister, Pastoral Associate
- Sacramental Co-coordinator, Sacramental Catechist, Sacramental Home group leaders
- Children's Liturgy Coordinator
- People engaged in Children's Liturgy
- Children's Choir leader and assistant
- Catechesis of the Good Shepherd
- Catechist
- Junior Legion of Mary
- Acolytes
- Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist who do home visitation to the sick and/or elderly
- Any person a Parish engages to work in a child-related role e.g. dance teacher, artist
